print now. Reporting on the character antecedents of the applicant in Oct^r 1908 the Deputy Comm^r of the Nuggehe distt stated that "the applicant is no other than the son of B. C. Srinivasa Iyengar of the late 'Desabhimani' notoriety and the editor of the late 'Jagadguru'. He is reported to be a stripling of 18 or 19 years of age. He has read up to the Lower Secondary standard in the Narimallappa's High School but has discontinued his studies for the past a year or so. He is reported to be a veritable chip of the old block".

In his note dated the 19th March 1909 the Dewan observed :— "This application appears to be an indirect attempt on the part of Mr. B. C. Srinivasa Iyengar to start a paper and it seems inexpedient to grant the permission asked for".

There are no reasons to think that circumstances have in any way changed for the better. May the D. G. of Police be requested to furnish Govt with a report as to the present character status and qualifications of the applicant ?
